Report on Defendant
Under Supervision

CAUSE

On October 20, 2008, the defendant appeared before Your Honor for a detention hearing and was subsequently released on an appearance bond secured by the posting of property, pretrial services supervision, and the special conditions contained on the cover sheet of this report.

Since his release onto GPS monitoring, the defendant has had one violation in February 2009 for leaving his residence without permission. This officer requested the Court take no action and Your Honor concurred. Aside from this isolated incident of non-compliance, the defendant has remained in compliance with all other terms of appearance bond. He is employed full-time for Dow Jones in Federal Way, Washington, maintains a residence with his wife and children in Kent, Washington, and has incurred no new law violations. He is paying for his GPS monitoring as directed and contacts with the defendant at his home have revealed no observed concerns or violations. His passport was seized at the time of his arrest and a passport stop notice has been submitted to the State Department prohibiting his application for any new travel documents while this case is pending.

The defendant has entered a guilty plea to the underlying charge and is currently scheduled for sentencing on June 26, 2009, before The Honorable John C. Coughour.

Both Defense counsel and Assistant U.S. Attorney have been notified and concur with the recommendation.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this 20th day of April, 2009.
